

febi bilstein – brake disc to fit Mercedes-Benz

Brake discs are safety critical components.

febi bilstein is aware of its responsibility and we refuse to compromise on quality. Detailed material and structural examinations ensure absolute safety when selecting our cast material. This ensures that operational reliability and a long service life is attained.

In the past various versions of this disc lead to confusion. febi bilstein now offers the latest version under item number 22677, which can be used as a direct replacement for both the old and new execution. Even the new vehicle models Actros IV, Antos and Arocs are covered with this brake disc.

With our wide range of brake discs febi bilstein covers the common models of the top seven European commercial vehicle manufacturers Mercedes-Benz, MAN, Volvo Trucks, Scania, Renault Trucks, DAF Trucks and Iveco.
